Sir

I have waited for another opportunity to speak with you. I have already spoke with another man who wears glasses, I didn't feel comfortable with him. Nor did he give me a chance to come out of the shell that often prevents me from expressing myself. I had the same trouble with a specialist who talked to briefly. My claustrophobia was not taken as seriously as I felt it should, but then it seems to be as it always has when in a system such as this. It takes me doing or saying something stupid for anything to be done. Then I'll be put in a room by myself to be observed. And that is what I fear, most of all, even more than death itself. Because I'll be put on a strong medication to dumb me up or I'll just go over the edge. I learnt my lesson is what I got to answer the 'sure' plea for help, was to be demoralized by being put in a cell for hours naked, being punished for being human with human fears.

I am, I feel a long ways from insane; but, too. I know like that again would push me further with in the recesses of myself; when what I seek is the help to become a productive member of our society. Therefore, I must suffer inhumane punishment by those who refuse to treat me as a person in need in twentieth century; instead of like the eighteenth century when mental health was dealt with as if it were a crime. I am going to give you a brief history of the six months now and again going back in time to where connections will be found! I felt your my best bet to get any help at all.

In court when I was sentenced, the judge ordered a psychological evaluation. When I got here, I was told this was it. Talking to three different men, each only for a brief time, I've sent for court records, and have contacted different organizations (people) on the constitutionality of this. In an evaluation, as far as I have collected information should be held over a period of time, wherein I visit one place for therapy and keep under observation. I know you'll have a large case load and do have time to deal with me, therefore unable to evaluate me properly.

I am going all out to get the help I need and deserve. If a man is willing to admit he needs help, then by all humanity and compassion, he should be helped. Like I told you I don't feel that I'm insane, but in need of care to restore my mental health.

If you remember our conversation, I told you other than my claustrophobia, and the out of mind panic it causes, I don't feel that I am insane, but with my mind and soul believe that I am possessed by a minor demon or a legend of them.

My realization of my being possessed became all too real in July of 1992 while locked up in the Hamblen county jail. Everything seemed as normal as it could be for a person with claustrophobia, I was suffering, but I had lots of people around me. Over the years I have found that people being around did ease the panic. One day early in that month, I read an ad that said "One face magic spell" and for some reason believed it could be. I wrote and asked for a spell to set me free. Soon I got a reply that had nothing to do with my request. Almost immediately a voice starting laughing in my head and said you seek these charlatans sellers of lies to break your bonds. When I have been with you now all along for one and twenty years. How I was stunned and couldn't (wouldn't) believe that was just not myself as I had thought for many years. Talking to myself, through my brain, in my head instead of out loud as I have often heard. Instantly a flash back came to me of when I was twelve years old. I was locked in a cedar chest for almost a whole weekend and of the voice I made repeatedly, "Let me live and hurt them back and I'll do anything you want." Now I know who I was asking; but I believed I don't recall. So from that moment on I believed as I do now. Our conversations were and are very one sided. Never getting a straight answer, but getting instructions almost constantly. First came the rituals, the giving of the blood and then signing of blood. At one time I asked who are you? You many are god? My answers where, the chosen one; you know me by sight. Which again took me back to my youth.

Within a weeks time of my weekend in hell.
I had fallen asleep in the living room on the floor.
When suddenly in late hours I was awokened by I don't know. There was a little light from the bathroom door being open slightly. I sat up and stared as the began to opened by someone. At his voice one was what looked like the most beautiful angel all gold and glowing; dressed in cloak and very large wings. It only came as far as my two steps but I don't think it stepped. The glow was overpowering and I found myself rising to my feet when it began to motion me towards it with its hand and arm. That's when I looked at it full in the face and was overcome with horror.
Its eyes went black to red and its smile was not a smile, but like an evil leer. It continued to motion me and seemed as though it was coming towards me. I ran as hard as I could, and ran now at my mother's side. I woke her and my dad up and told them what happened. After a lot of trouble
I finally went with my dad to look, and though nothing was there; the bathroom door stood wide open.
Now that I look back rationally, that door was never left wide open; but only a crack; so we could see our way to it in the night time. I gave them given instruction to mark myself in faith of the signs of faith and as a testimony of my belief. On my own I covered a cross, and after was told to leave the others also as testimony. For they were the past and my new ~~were~~ the future of what is to be. The answer to how many was "We are one"
I am many; almost always like a riddle or question to a

(what was)

(brother)

After I accomplished what I could and spoke out of evil, I was told that there would be a coming of one to lead me to my freedom such as it was or ever could be. There was a brief time that I was again alone and the voices like of all my life seemed weak and of myself.

Over the years I came to rely on drugs and was always told by myself, You'll be alone without drugs, no one will want to be around, no one will like you if you don't have drugs, you know you can't talk to them if your not high. Get them high they'll be your friends, you know you need friends, you can't be alone, you will be alone if you don't get high, you don't hurt anybody in what you do, its easy, so do it, sell things, your bad, your all drugs and you'll never be alone. Drugs are your power.

Sometime in August I was woke up at about 9pm and told by an inmate that someone wanted to talk to me. I was pissed, but soon got over it when this dude I never met came up to me. The first words he said was "Your the one I've been looking for, we are getting out of here tonight. It was true, I was being taken to my freedom. His plan was to kill the one (unint) guard and take the other one hostage and didn't say anything right then, but as I thought about it, I came back and said I'd pass. He said then how, I'll just scar the guard into letting us out, and he gave me the shank. And then we waited, the timing went wrong, and only he made it to the freedom was to house. And then it said, you were told to follow, not lead, were was your faith.

For the reasons of me not being a party to murder and refusing to hurt the guard during the escape. And the fact that I am now serving a term, I believe they are only minor demons. And that though they have been with me long, have not yet forced me to do harm to others. They do use my closter-phobia against me, by waiting to weaken and then cause me to panic and loose control as when I hung myself in 1988. Even more they are with me, saying that this is only going to get me locked in a room alone. They did it before, they don't care, you're a fool person, don't tell them, they'll lock you up alone like they did before, they'll laugh at you they always do, no one will believe you, you'll be alone.

For the first time in my life I have come into realization of what I face. I cannot take full credit for this, cause it was by speaking of it that I have come to my conclusion. After writing down the things I have always had trouble sharing with others, I let my cellie read it, not really expecting to find an answer or even his acceptance of my ordeal. Yet hoping that I could atleast come to terms with what I face, and that that haunts me.

After his acceptance and the following of many questions, many of which that I've asked myself. But the difference, brought out answers that I've either denied or that have been hidden away from my conscience thoughts. The answers I well reveal brought me some peace of mind for there being. Yet still, they have brought new speculations and new fears too. I'm all though, I am now better off; that is if I can solve my problems myself. Having gone through three different state prison systems with no help so far, I can see that the over crowding of the said systems prevents such care.

In Michigan I requested such help as to my claustrophobia, and again after a suicide attempt in N.C., stemming from being locked in a cell by myself. I was just pushed through the system, being kept in overflow states where I wasn't locked down, not forced to be alone. And finally my last term in this system where I shared a cell and only had to be locked down at night; and spent my days outside. I had hoped the court order would set me on a road to answers and help; but again; it don't appear so.

My fears of being locked in a small area or even large one for a long amount of time, along with being afraid of being alone in themselves are not of an enormous amount of concern. That that concerns me is what happens in the instances of my own weakness. When I become over powered by those from within. I admit that I have fallen to their will while on the streets, fearing to be alone; I would go to many means to secure the attention and presence of others. But knowing so is only half of the problem. Concurring these fears will be the only way to rid myself of those who possess me and drive me beyond endurance. If had I seek is away to reach someone to help me by sharing what I feel; I am scared of telling anyone, because of the way I was treated in N.C. I was forced into a cell alone, with nothing to occupy my time, but fear. I left that place a changed person, I hasn't been near since; I am sure that part of me left me then, I fear what will happen to me if I don't seek help and yet, I do too if I do seek help, I do not trust people, and the time in N.C just enforced that feeling. For instance, I know that there are people in this system that wish to do me harm, but as I said earlier, there are much worse things than death. And I treasure the amount of intelligence I have, and being on drugs to keep me down or the outcome of just dealing with what's within will surely strike down my mental stability.

I don't feel I am insane, but just opposite, I want to secure my sanity, by doing so; further my course of wanting to be a productive member of society.

I hope that I have expressed myself and my feeling adequately. As I have said, I do have problems doing so face to face, which has also been one of the underlying problems; along with my other fears that drugs seemed to concur. A man who deals drugs or has a lot and willing to share has no lack of so called friends; and being stoned makes talking easier.

Though I've never been out spoken, I was the life of the party; being the one dishing out the good times; looking back, I do not miss anything, it only ~~makes~~ want to resolve my addictions and fears. It sounds pretty corny saying I have fears or that I am scared of things. But in the same, as a man, I have to face them and admitting them is the first step of many. Because these fears and the results from and of them have run my life for too long. I don't know where else to turn since nothing so far has worked. I do know that though I feel I have found direction, I need the help, myself doesn't have the knowledge, will power or what ever it's going to take to come to terms with I face and did not only myself; but society of a more or mankind.

I wish I could, let someone feel and hear what I do; so someone would understand. Even in this plea, I can not reveal all; until I feel secure; and that is not locked away to deal with it, nor put on drugs that will expose me; or turn me into half wit; nor zombie! Because they're all worse than death. I want to become whole and be rid of those who possess me, not just to be unaware of them, or the world!

Sincerely,
D. is a Doctor
